John,

Thanks. I had thought of checking the jackets, but thought I would check with you first in case you had one handy.

All,

I did prepare a Fact Sheet for Difethialone, if I recall correctly. However, it would have been keyed into something like WodrPerfect 4.2 and not, I suppose, readable by any application we now have. The Fact Sheet actually might be on my hard disk somewhere because I have not discarded anything in my move from computer to computer through the years. I wonder if I'd recognize the file name, though (it'd be in an eight dot three format). I don't have a hard copy of this Fact Sheet here but I guess there's a chance I might have a copy at home (saved as an example of my writing, just in case; it's a public document, too). I'm far from sure of this, however. Since I am regularly faulted for saving too much documentation, I believe the best place to find the Fact Sheet is in the jackets for the first-registered of LiphaTech's Difethialone products. Unless I am mistaken in my memory of having prepared a fact sheet for this rodenticide I cannot believe it is not present in one of those jackets.

This program has GOT to do a better job of retaining the major documents (at least) it creates!

Bo,

- When John Bazuin handled this active in 1995, he did a Fact Sheet, which according to a June 28, 1995, FR Notice was available at the National Technical Information Service (NTIS).
- I guess at that time we did not post them on our website.
- I am sure that, at one time, I had a copy of the Fact Sheet, but cannot find one immediately.
- Give us a little time, and we will locate a copy.

John, Bill, and Bill: Do any of you have an E or hard copy? I could not find a copy on the net.

Dan-

I received a call from Steve Kenyon from the Massachusetts state government. He is looking for a fact sheet on difethialone. Do you know where we can locate one (if it exists). I couldn't find it on EPA's intranet. When you click on difethialone, it routes you to a general rodenticide fact sheet. However, I couldn't find any reference to difethialone anywhere in the document. Do you know anything about this?

Thanks tons....
Bo
